A Matter of Importance

The following letter from Mr. F. A. Woodbridge, the proprietor of Spring Hill Stock Farm, Vergennes, Vt., is worthy of record. Mr. Woodbridge is the owner of a large stock farm and proprietor of the imported thoroughbred Percheron Stallion 'Favori," the winner of several first premiums at the Vermont State Fair. As a thorough going orseman his opinions are of weight in any matter touching the care and treatment of that class of stock. Concerning Dr. Miller's celebrated Spavin
